

WINNING WINES FROM A HEAVENLY SOURCE

Situated high up the Hemel-en-Aarde Ridge near Hermanus, Creation's vines climb the steep hills of Babylon Toren Mountain to a lofty altitude of 300 metres above sea level. Here they bask in generous sunlight, flourish in clay-rich soils and dance in the cool breezes blowing in from the nearby Atlantic Ocean. In fact, the vineyards are within 7 kilometres of Walker Bay and according to owner-cellarmaster JC Martin these maritime conditions are fundamental to the distinctive quality of the wines. Proof of this distinctive quality is the wide array of local and international accolades regularly won by the Creation Range
